The additional premium for the extended reporting period will be 100% of the Premium. If the extended reporting period ends because the Insured obtains insurance that covers substantially the same risk exposure as this Policy then Keystone will retain a short-term premium calculated at the pro rata proportion of the additional premium and the Principal Insured will receive a refund of any balance of the premium, unless there have been any notifications during the Period of Insurance or the extended reporting period, in which case no refund shall be given. The entitlement to purchase the extended reporting period lapses upon expiry of the Period of Insurance. The application to purchase the extended reporting period must be received by Keystone prior to the expiry of the Period of Insurance, and payment of the additional premium must be made to Keystone within thirty (30) days of the same date. The Insured waives all claims to legal professional privilege with Keystone to the extent necessary; and

Any Claims arising from the provision of Information Technology Services after the date of cancellation, suspension or termination are excluded from indemnity under this Policy. However, this Condition does not apply if the suspension relates purely to the late payment of registration fees.

Endorsements

8.13 An Endorsement does not affect or increase the Limit of Liability, the Maximum Aggregate Limit of Liability or any other term, except to the extent specifically provided in the Endorsement. For the avoidance of doubt, each Endorsement is otherwise subject to all the terms of this Policy.

- 8.20 Keystone will charge the Insured an amount on account of GST as part of the Premium. The Insured must inform Keystone of the extent to which there is an entitlement to an input tax credit for that GST amount each time that it notifies a Claim under this Policy. No payment will be made to the Insured for any GST liability that it may incur on the settlement of a Claim if it does not inform Keystone of its entitlement or correct entitlement to an input tax credit. Keystone's liability to the Insured will be calculated taking into account any input tax credit to which the Insured is entitled for any acquisition which is relevant to the Claim, or to which it would have been entitled had it made a relevant acquisition despite the other terms of this Policy. 'GST', 'input tax credit', 'acquisition' and 'supply' have the meaning given in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

Governing Law

- 8.21 This Policy will be governed in accordance with the law of the State or Territory of Australia in which this Policy was issued. Any disputes relating to interpretation will be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Australia.

Costs in Addition

- 8.25 This Policy provides costs in addition up to 30% of the Limit of Liability for any one Claim and in the aggregate. For example, if this Policy has a Limit of Liability of $1,000,000 any one Claim and in the aggregate, the maximum liability of Keystone is $1,300,000 inclusive of all Costs and Expenses. If this Policy has a Limit of Liability of $2,000,000 any one Claim and $2,600,000 in the aggregate, the maximum liability of Keystone is $2,600,000 any one Claim and $3,200,000 in the aggregate inclusive of all Costs and Expenses.

Material Change

- 8.26 The Insured must notify Keystone as soon as reasonably practicable of any material change in the risk insured by this Policy. Keystone is entitled to amend the terms of this Policy and/or charge an additional premium based on Keystone's assessment of any change in the risk insured by this Policy. A material change in the risk includes, without limitation:
- 8.26.1 activities that are materially different from those declared in the Proposal; or
 - 8.26.2 activities outside the normal activities of Information Technology Services; or
 - 8.26.3 the Insured being insolvent; or
 - 8.26.4 any loss of or conditions imposed upon any licence or other authority required by the Insured to conduct Information Technology Services.
- 8.27 Keystone may at its election, instead of cancelling or avoiding this Policy, give notice in writing to the Insured that any Claim or Inquiry which has arisen or may arise which is related to such facts, activities or circumstances shall be excluded from indemnity under this Policy in the event of Keystone being at any time entitled to cancel or avoid this Policy because of the Insured failing to give notice in accordance with Condition 8.26 Material Change.

Other Insurance

8.28 The Insured shall promptly give to Keystone full details of any other insurance, including the identity of the insurer and the policy number, and such further information as Keystone may reasonably require if at the time any Claim arises under this Policy there is any other insurance in force covering the same liability.

Proportionate Liability

8.29 This Policy will only indemnify the Insured for the Insured's proportionate liability for any Claim.

Severability and Non-Imputation

8.30 Where this Policy insures more than one party, any failure on the part of any of the parties shall not prejudice the right of the remaining party or parties to indemnify under this Policy, provided that such remaining party or parties shall:

8.30.1 comply with the duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth);

8.30.2 comply with any obligation under this Policy (other than the obligation to pay premium);

The Insured must assist Keystone (including giving evidence at any civil hearing) and provide such information and documentation (including signed statements) as Keystone reasonably require in exercising such rights at Keystone's request, and without charge.

8.32 Keystone agree not to exercise the Insured's rights of subrogation against any Principal or Employee of the Insured's notwithstanding Condition 8.30 Severability and Non-Imputation, if any payment is made or may be made under this Policy, unless the Claim is brought about or contributed to by the dishonest, fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission of the Principal or Employee.

Variation of this Policy

8.33 No variation of this Policy will be effective, unless made by Endorsement.

What makes up the Insurance Contract?

This contract of insurance is made up of the Schedule, this Policy and any Endorsements that Keystone issues when an application is accepted or an existing Policy is renewed or amended.

Significant Features, Benefits and Exclusions

This Policy provides many significant features and benefits, subject to Conditions and Exclusions. Exclusions apply to this Policy and all of them are important. It is important that this Policy is read carefully to be aware of and understand the extent of cover that it offers. It will give full details of the Exclusions.

Significant Risks

The Insured should make sure that the sum insured and the limits to be purchased will be sufficient. All the terms and conditions contained in this Policy need to be understood.

Claims Made Policy

This Policy is issued by Keystone on a claims made and notified basis. This means that it only covers claims first made against an Insured during the Period of Insurance and notified to Keystone in writing during the Period of Insurance. The Policy does not provide cover for any claims made against an Insured during the Period of Insurance if at any time prior to the Period of Insurance starting, an Insured was aware of facts which might give rise to those claims being made against them.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 provides that where an Insured gives notice in writing to an insurer during the Period of Insurance of facts that might give rise to a claim against the Insured, the insurer cannot refuse to pay a claim which arises out of those facts, by reason only that the claim is made after the Period of Insurance has expired.

Retroactive Liability

This Policy is limited by a Retroactive Date. The Policy does not cover any liability arising from an Insured's conduct prior to the Retroactive Date.

Alteration to Risk and Deregistration

This Policy requires an Insured to notify Keystone within thirty (30) days of any material change to the business, or in the event of insolvency or bankruptcy. This Policy requires an Insured to give immediate notice of the cancellation, suspension, termination or imposition of conditions in respect of an Insured's statutory registration. Claims arising from conduct which occurs subsequent to the cancellation, suspension or termination of the Insured's statutory registration, licence, certification or authorisation under any relevant legislation or industry code of practice governing the Insured's profession are excluded from indemnity under this Policy. However, this condition does not apply if the suspension relates purely to the late payment of registration fees.

Doctrine of Utmost Good Faith

Every insurance contract is subject to this doctrine which requires the parties to the contract to act toward each other with the utmost good faith. Failure to do so may prejudice any claims and/or the continuation of the insurance contract.

The Insured's Duty of Disclosure - (this applies to non-consumer insurance contracts only)*

The Insured has a duty to tell Keystone anything that the Insured knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, before entering an insurance contract, that may affect Keystone's decision to insure the Insured and on what terms. The Insured has this duty until Keystone agrees to insure the Insured.

The Insured has the same duty before the Insured renews, extends, varies, or reinstates an insurance contract.

The Insured does not need to tell Keystone anything that:

- reduces the risk for which the Insured is insured; or
- is common knowledge; or
- Keystone knows, or should know; or
- Keystone waives the Insured's duty to tell Keystone.

If the Insured does not tell Keystone

Keystone may if the Insured does not tell Keystone anything the Insured is required to tell:

- cancel the Insured's contract, or
- reduce the amount to be paid to the Insured if the Insured makes a claim, or
- both the above.

Keystone may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed if the Insured's failure to tell Keystone is fraudulent.

Change of Circumstances

The terms and conditions of this Policy will be based on information the Insured provided to Keystone. It is essential Keystone are advised of any material change that occurs to this information prior to the inception of this Policy. Failure to do so by the Insured may prejudice any subsequent claims under the Policy and/or jeopardise the continuation of the insurance contract.

* From Schedule 1, Part 1 Insurance Contracts Regulations 2017. A "Consumer Insurance Contract" is a policy of insurance that is wholly or predominantly obtained for personal, domestic, or household purposes.

Keystone will only ask for and consider relevant information when assessing the Insured's application for cover.

Keystone may decline to release information in special circumstances, but will not do so unreasonably. Keystone will give reasons in these circumstances, and the Insured will have the right to request Keystone to review the decision through Keystone's complaints handling procedures. Keystone will provide reasons in writing upon request.

Mistakes

Keystone will immediately initiate action to correct an error or mistake in assessing the Insured's application for cover where it is identified.

Declining Cover

If Keystone cannot provide insurance cover, Keystone will:

- (b) refer the entity/person seeking insurance to another insurer, AFCA or NIBA, for information about alternative insurance options (unless they already have someone acting on their behalf).

Keystone will make available information about Keystone's complaints handling procedures if the entity/person is unhappy with Keystone's decision.

Policy Information

Information about Keystone's policy wordings will be available when the Insured buy insurance from Keystone as well as on request. They will also be available on Keystone's website at www.keystoneunderwriting.com.au.

Subrogation

The Insured may prejudice their rights regarding a claim if, without prior approval from Keystone, the Insured makes an agreement with a third party that would prevent Keystone from recovering any applicable loss (in whole or in part) from that, or another party.

This Policy contains provisions that have the effect of excluding or limiting Keystone's liability for a claim under this Policy if you have entered into any agreement that excludes, limits or delays the Insured's right to recover damages from another party in respect of such claim.

Cost of Policy

The cost of this Policy is made up of premium plus any applicable policy fees, government taxes and charges. Keystone may cancel this Policy if the Insured fails to pay the total premium due.

The Insured may be required to pay a deductible or excess if a claim is made under this Policy. Details of applicable deductibles or excess are provided in the Schedule. This Policy sets out the terms relating to the payment of deductibles or excesses.

Taxation

All taxes and charges are shown as separate items (e.g. fire and emergency services levy, stamp duty depending upon location and GST).

Cooling-off Period

The Insured has the right to cancel this Policy with Keystone within 14 days of the date that the Policy incepted, unless a claim is made. Keystone will refund the full amount of the premium less any duties or taxes payable if this cancellation occurs during the cooling-off period. This Policy will be terminated from the date Keystone receive the request to cancel.

Making a Claim

Benefits are payable if the Insured suffers a loss that is covered under this Policy during the Period of Insurance, except if an Exclusion or Condition applies. The Insured must immediately notify Keystone or their insurance adviser if there is a loss under this Policy.

Cancelling the Policy Before the Due Date

The Insured may cancel this Policy at any time by notifying us in writing, detailing the date that the cancellation will take effect. Keystone will refund any unearned premium to the Insured or their insurance adviser within 15 working days after the date of cancellation. Unearned premium will be computed pro rata for the unexpired term of this Policy, unless agreed in advance through the insurance adviser and set out in this Policy.

Privacy

Keystone are committed to safeguarding and protecting the Insured's privacy. Keystone is bound by the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 which sets out the standards to meet in the collection, use and disclosure of personal information.

The Act defines "personal information" as "information or an opinion about an individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion".

Purpose of Collection

Keystone will only use personal information the Insured provides to quote on and insure risks and matters incidental thereto, including investigating and managing claims.

It may be necessary for Keystone to provide the Insured's personal information to others, such as other insurers or reinsurers, claims investigators, lawyers and other professionals, and government bodies. Keystone will not under any circumstances trade, rent or sell the information.

Keystone cannot properly quote insurance and cannot insure the Insured if they do not provide Keystone with complete, accurate and up-to-date information. If the Insured provide Keystone with personal information about anyone else, Keystone will rely on the Insured to have told them that their information will be provided to Keystone, to whom Keystone may provide it, the purposes for which Keystone will use it and that they can access it. Keystone relies on the Insured to have obtained their consent on these matters if the information is sensitive.
